

Zoila Flores

K5 – 8th Grade Spanish & Spanish Club

Zoila Flores is excited to join the St. John XXIII school community as the Spanish Instructor. As a native Spanish speaker from Mexico, she brings a rich cultural heritage to share with students. Zoila obtained her Bachelor's degree in Illinois and her Spanish abilities have allowed her the opportunity to work in various capacities. Zoila's teaching career began at the Little Read Schoolhouse where she educated young minds. She has continued developing her passion for education working as a Spanish instructor with Futura Language Professionals' extensive Spanish enrichment program and this past year as an integrated teacher for elementary and middle school students. She is a natural and enthusiastic educator who builds positive rapport and communicates effectively with students and parents alike. Zoila is passionate about teaching her native language and looks forward to teaching at our school!
