

Mary Jo Holzer

Music Specialist

Mrs. Mary Jo Holzer is the Music Specialist at SJ23. After her children entered middle school, she went back to college to study her passion- music. Mrs. Holzer received a Bachelor of Music from Silver Lake College in 1999 with a double certification in General Music and Choral 7-12, with an emphasis in the Kodaly methodology.

When Mrs. Holzer is not teaching you will find her playing and singing for Mass at area churches as well as teaching piano lessons in her home. She lives with her husband on a hobby farm outside of Sheboygan Falls in the house in which she and her 12 siblings grew up!

Mrs. Holzer's hobbies include: gardening, sewing projects, singing, raising chickens and just enjoying the outdoors. She also enjoys spending time with her two grandchildren Isabella and Rory.

Mrs. Holzer's passion for teaching music is why she loves it at SJ23. She thrives on sharing her music knowledge through fun and creative activities. She also very much feels the loving support of students, staff and families at SJ23.
